

Family Law Experience

Grant Thornton's team has leading experience in the provision of litigation support and forensic accounting services in family law matters. We undertake a wide range of services and have significant experience in working with family law solicitors, barristers and clients in resolving matters. We have routinely provided expert evidence in the Family Court of Australia and the Federal Circuit Court of Australia and understand the family law process.

A sample of family law matters that we have been involved in include:

Minority interest valuation of a large vertically integrated beef business, comprising cattle properties, feedlot and processing facilities.

Advisory expert for family law proceedings involving a significant Aged Care operation in Victoria – critique of independent valuation expert, market and industry knowledge used for various submissions to the independent expert, critique of submissions by other advisory expert

Valuation of manufacturing business operating in regional China including utilising our China investigations team to aid in legally accessing financial and company information

Valuation of unlisted unvested executive performance rights and options. This required a complex model to benchmark the company's historical and future share price and consideration of other risks and discounts to current value.

Transactional review of Australian and overseas bank accounts and the preparation of a source and application of funds to identify addbacks and undisclosed transactions.

Shadow Advisory Expert for the founder and controlling shareholder of a Queensland house constructor (turnover >$100m) providing critique and alternate valuation to the Court Appointed Single Expert.
