Company Background Information

Conditions of Entry

1. The FBA (State) Hall of Fame is open to Australian Family Businesses.
2. Induction recognises advancements and achievements in Family Business.
3. A maximum of 3 family businesses will be inducted in each state in each year.
4. If the judges consider the nominations received do not meet the criteria, no nominee will be inducted.
5. Entries can only be made by the nominee or by another Family Business or by an Adviser.
6. Nominations are to be made on this form and submitted with supporting documentation.
7. Nominations will be considered on the information provided on the form and accompanying supporting material.
8. The completed submission must be lodged in electronic format only, via email.
9. To determine the inductees, FBA will select a panel of appropriately qualified and experienced people who will be bound by a code of conduct. FBA may or may not disclose the identities of the panel members.
10. The panel will consider nominations received, and may seek external expert advice.
11. The panel will make the induction decision. In all cases this will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
12. Nominees are not to have any direct contact with the panel.
13. FBA is not liable under any circumstances associated with these inductions for any damage, infringement or violation affecting the property rights of the nominee, an organisation or an individual.
14. Nominations and supporting materials will not be returned.
